

Curriculum vitae – Prof. Dr. med. Thomas Carus

April 7, 2016

General, visceral and vascular surgeon, special visceral surgery, proctology, sports and emergency medicine

Born October 5th, 1963

- 1982 – 1988 Medical Education - University of Duesseldorf, Germany
- 1988 – 1991 Medical Assistant (resident) - Hospital Diepholz, Germany
Department of General and Trauma Surgery
- 1991 – 1994 Medical Assistant (resident) – Evang. Hospital Duesseldorf, Germany
Department of General, Vascular and Trauma Surgery
- 1994 – 1996 Senior Physician – Evang. Hospital Oldenburg, Germany
Department of General and Visceral Surgery
- 1995 Specialist for Surgery
- 1996 – 2001 Chief Medical Officer – Staedt. Kliniken Neuss, Germany
Department of General , Visceral and Vascular Surgery
- 1999 Specialist for Visceral Surgery
- 2001 Specialist for Vascular Surgery
- 2001 – 2007 Chief Surgeon - Hospital Neuwerk Moenchengladbach, Germany
Department of General , Visceral and Vascular Surgery
- 2007 – 2011 Chief Surgeon - Hospital Cuxhaven, Germany
Department of General , Visceral and Vascular Surgery
Center for Minimally Invasive Surgery
- 2011 – 2015 Chief Surgeon – Klinikum Bremen-Ost, Bremen, Germany
Department of General , Visceral and Trauma Surgery
Center for Minimally Invasive Surgery
- Since Sept. 2015 Chief Surgeon – Asklepios Westklinikum Hamburg, Germany
Department of General , Visceral and Vascular Surgery
Center for Minimally Invasive Surgery

Active member of the following professional associations

German Society of Surgery

German Society for Visceral Surgery

German Society for Vascular Surgery

Professional Association of German Surgeons

Surgical Association for minimally invasive surgery (Member of the Board)

Surgical Working Group for Liver - Bile - Pancreas

German Society for Bariatric Surgery

International Endo Hernia Association (founding member)

American Hernia Association