

Peter is an upper GI surgeon with a special interest in laparoscopic surgery for non- malignant upper GI and endocrine disease and has spent his career teaching advanced laparoscopic technical skills.

He has been performing laparoscopic surgery for 30 years and has been the Tutor in Minimal Access surgery for the Royal College of Surgeons of England writing and delivering RCS courses in bariatric and minimal access surgery and he is the Immediate Past President of the Association of Laparoscopic Surgeons of Great Britain and Ireland.